

Curriculum Vitae

PD Dr. Karin Dedek

August 18, 1972 in Hemer, Germany

University of Oldenburg

Fak. V, IBU

Neurobiology

Phone: +49 441 798 3425

Fax: +49 441 798 3423

karin.dedek@uni-oldenburg.de

Work Experience

08 / 2009 – today

Senior Researcher (permanent position) at the University of Oldenburg, Dept. of Neurobiology (Prof. Reto Weiler)

10 / 2005 – 06 / 2006

Visiting Fellow at Weill Medical College of Cornell University, New York, Dept. of Physiology (Prof. Sheila Nirenberg)

01 / 2003 – 08 / 2009

Postdoctoral fellow at the University of Oldenburg, Dept. of Neurobiology (Prof. Reto Weiler)

08 / 1999 – 12 / 2002

Researcher (Doctoral Student) at the Center of Molecular Neurobiology Hamburg, Dept. of Neuropathobiology (Prof. Thomas J. Jentsch)

Teaching, Education and Training

10 / 2010

Habilitation in Neurobiology, University of Oldenburg, title: Expression pattern and functional role of connexins in the mouse retina

03 / 2003

PhD in Zoology at the University of Oldenburg, thesis title: Characterization of KCNQ potassium channels and their beta-subunits

10 / 1999 – 09 / 2002

Graduate studies Molecular Biology at the University of Hamburg

10 / 1992 – 12 / 1998

Undergraduate studies in Biology at the University of Oldenburg, degree: diploma

1992

General qualification for university entrance (Abitur), Märkisches Gymnasium Iserlohn

International Experience

10 / 2007 – 11 / 2007

Research residency in the lab of Prof. Dr. Sheila Nirenberg, Weill Medical School of Cornell University, New York, USA

03 / 2005 – 04 / 2005

Research residency in the lab of Prof. Dr. Sheila Nirenberg, University of California, Los Angeles, USA